Unmarked grave located

Samuel Stancil was the father of John Thomas Stancil, James Henry Stancil, Josiah Stancil and Jacob Stancil.

Jerry Stancil, of the Samuel Branch, has located the grave of Samuel Stancil. Samuel was buried in what is now known as the Hales Cemetery on Shoeheel Road.

Jerry talked with Larry Joyner

(Tempy Ann/Resley), owner of Joyner's Memorial of Wilson, NC, about ordering a suitable marker. Jerry has contacted members of the Samuel Stancil family to see about helping with the costs involved.

Jerry is an expert at locating unmarked graves having located a number for families of Civil War veterans. If strings are stretched diagonally across the fenced cemetery, Samuel's grave is where they intersect. Jerry also found two large tree cavities.

This is consistent with the story John Thomas told grandson Ralph regarding the location of Samuel's grave shortly before he died in 1922.

Ralph was 14 at the time. Tom said, "The last time I saw my father's grave, a large pine tree was growing there."

Ed Wallace selected as Langley Speedway's Father of the Year

Letter about Ed from his son, Billy.
My Dad, Ed Wallace, should be Langley's number one dad for many reasons, but mainly because, at the age of 58, I still look up to him like I did when I was a kid. I started racing back in 2003 at the ripe old age of 53. Racing in first U-cars and now Super Trucks, I always know that when I pass by the grandstands my 87 year old Dad will be sitting there with my Mom, cheering me on. Dad, or Daddy as I still call him, served in WWII as a B-17 Flying Fortress pilot. Shot down over Germany after 18 missions, he spent 13 months in a POW camp. Despite his reluctance to talk much about his time in the war or how it affected him, he's lived his life in a way that today still makes me want to be half the man he is.

How It Started

By Maura Stancil

The first generation of our Stancil family Started with a man named John Stancall He was born in England The year of 1664.

A long, long time ago
He sailed to America
On a ship named "Mary"
Can you imagine,
From England to Virginia
Settling around the river
Nasemond
That was indeed
A very long journey.

Just to let you know
I am generation 11
When he settled
I don't think he was aware
That one day
Here in America
This is where his Future loved ones
Would be.
